Opis / Description

6 pcs in pack

The BYS Craw Portly is designed to imitate a crayfish, their BYS range of crawl baits are second to none, used by many Bassmaster tour anglers and Morizo Shimizu the winner of the 2011 bassmasters classic.

Bait Breath have used a medium soft material with added salt and a BYS mix oil flavoring made from fish, insect and shrimp extract. The under body of BYS Craw Portly is ribbed to hold air and create a vibratory effect comparable to that produced by a female crayfish in incubation., this also creates a large surface area that allow the diffusion of the BYS mix flavor. The animal hair is used to mimic the legs and help keep your lure in a stable position. Whilst the large claws and feelers are designed to catch the water and produce tight vibration when swimming. This is one lure that works for all fish, fresh or salt water.
